Evening Service: Psalm 51: 1 – 12 Steve Borgogno

Triumph and Glory

*"The day of the Lord so comes as a thief in the night."
 1 Thessalonians 5:2*

Christians have no cause to go around wringing their hands, wondering what they will do in the face of the present world situation. The Scripture says that in the midst of persecution, confusion, wars, and rumours of wars, we are to comfort one another with the knowledge that Jesus Christ is coming back in triumph, glory and majesty. Many times when I go to bed at night I think that before I awaken Christ may come. Sometimes when I get up and look at the dawn I think that perhaps this is the day He will return.

But until that day, God is still working—and so should we. In a world filled with turmoil and hopelessness, we are to pray, and we are to do all we can to alleviate suffering and bring Christ's love to others. May Jesus' words become true in your life: "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven" (Matt. 5:16) Billy Graham—Hope for Each Day.

- For those grieving over the passing of loved ones, including Ian Veal, whose son passed away recently.
- For N and M, as her lawyer progresses her application for a protection visa.
- For pastor Ian and Colleen, for safety as they travel home and arrive later this afternoon.

Positive feedback encourage those who are reaching out to the lost in these hard places. Plans are underway to expand the short wave reception in other areas of Myanmar, where local people in the ministry network are eager to assist.
